

Author bio

---

Lok Bahadur Khatri

Lok Bahadur Khatri is a teacher of English at Shree Krishna Sanskrit and General Secondary School Surkhet, Nepal. He has an M Ed in English from Tribhuvan University Kathmandu, Nepal.

He has been teaching English for secondary level for 13 years. He is a roster trainer of English in the Human Resource Development Center, Karnali Province, Nepal.

His past working experience includes having worked as a Head Teacher for five years, and as Resource Person for three years. Lok freelances as a Teacher Educator for English and schools projects for the British Council in Nepal. Currently, he has been working in Connecting Classrooms through Global Learning, and English and Digital for Girls' Education projects.

Previously, he worked as a trainer in National Initiative to Improve Teaching in English project and as a Local Academic Consultant for Connecting Classroom video project. He also worked as a mentor in British Council Action Research Mentoring Scheme.